Gone to His Home in Brazil.

Cadet John Anderson, of Brazil, who has been a student at the Agricultural and Mechanical college here, last week received a message by cable from his father instructing him to come home immediately. His father, knowing this college was a military school, feared the students would be pressed into service in the war, in case there should be fighting between the United States and Spain.

Mr. Anderson left Saturday, and yesterday he sailed from New York for his far away home. He will not reach his home until about the second week in May.—News-Observer.

ONLY TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

It is Thought Will be Given Spain to Comply With Ultimatum.

RESOLUTIONS HAVE BEEN SIGNED

And There is No Evidence of Spain Backing Down—What Will be the Next Tack?

Washington, April 19—The cabinet met early this morning for the purpose of considering the resolutions passed by congress. The resolutions are now before Speaker Reed and Vice-President Hobart. These officials will affix their signatures immediately after the two houses are called to order at noon. A messenger will be on hand prepared to hasten with it to the white house and, unless all signs fail, it will be immediately signed by the president. The demands of the resolutions will at once be put into operation. The president will transmit an ultimatum to Spain and will give her twenty-four hours in which to comply with the demands of this government. He will also notify Spain that this country will take aggressive measures to have its demands complied with.

SIGNED BY REED AND HOBART.
Washington, April 19—Speaker Reed signed the joint resolutions today at six minutes past twelve o'clock. Vice-President Hobart affixed his signature to the same document at twelve forty.

HOUSE ADJOURNED.
Washington, April 19—The house adjourned until tomorrow. The cabinet is considering the ultimatum.

IN THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS
Washington, April 19—The resolutions reached the white house at one thirty-two and it was announced that Mr. McKinley would sign the document at half past three. The cabinet adjourned until then.

WILL BE BRIEF.
Washington, April 19—The ultimatum to Spain will probably be brief and will contain a copy of the joint resolution with a polite invitation to respond by the evacuation of Cuba by Spain immediately.

FIVE OPPOSED RESOLUTIONS.
Washington, April 19—The house passed the resolutions at 2:43 this morning. The members voting against the resolutions were: Brewer, Alabama; Boutelle, Maine; Land, California; Gardiner, New Jersey; McCall, Massachusetts. The president was aroused and apprised of the final action.

WILL ANSWER UNFAVORABLY.
Washington, April 19—It is not believed that Spain will answer favorably this government's ultimatum. Members of both houses agree that the resolutions accepted effect the same result in regard to independence of Cuba as if the senate amendment had prevailed.

SPANISH CONSUL PACKING UP.
New York, April 19—The Spanish Consul is packing his effects preparatory to leaving.

MARINES ORDERED TO KEY WEST.
Brooklyn, April 19—Orders were received at the navy yard today calling for a battalion of marines for the Key West fleet immediately. Marines cheered when the news was received believing that they will lead the landing forces of the army of invasion. Five detachments of marines arrived at the navy yard for the Cuban battalions.

WAR CABLE WILL BE LAID.
Washington, April 19—When the troops are transported to Cuba a war cable will be laid at the same time to establish communication between the army and Washington.

UNUSUAL ACTIVITY.
Washington, April 19—There was unusual activity at the Spanish legation this morning. The attaches, who usually begin their duties at ten o'clock, this morning started at seven thirty. Minister Bernabe will probably leave this afternoon.

WILL MOVE THE TROOPS.
Philadelphia, April 19—President Thomas, of the Pennsylvania railway, has been asked to take charge of the transportation of troops.

Washington, April 19—Secretary Cagoe is preparing bulletins to be sent to the merchant marine warning them not to send out any vessels when war is declared.

FITZ LEE'S SHADOW.

Will He Be the Moses to Lead the Democracy Out of the Wilderness?

The journey of Consul General Lee from Key West to Washington was a continuous ovation. It was like the return of a victorious general from a hard fought campaign. The people gathered by the thousands at the railway stations along his route, cheered him, embraced him and overwhelmed him with flowers.

This popular enthusiasm was not due to anything written or spoken by General Lee. He has made no speeches and his correspondence has not been made public. Nor has he shown the slightest disposition to promote a policy of any kind. He has kept himself within the lines of his consular duties; and that alike under Cleveland and McKinley. But he has met every emergency with unfaltering courage, never hesitating to go forward, never impatient. Not once in all his consular service did he run up either the red flag of defiance or the white flag of peace at any price.

There is nothing the American people so much admire as pluck. It was the true grit of Andrew Jackson that made him the popular hero of his day. Whether confronting the British army at New Orleans or demanding the surrender of a Spanish fort at Pensacola, he had the clear grit of a true American. The people believe that Fitzhugh Lee is every inch an American, with all the high courage and absolute fidelity which are the material out of which heroes are made. At whatever port he had landed, his journey to the national capital would have been strewn with flowers and palms of popular acclaim.

No American could evoke a more cordial and general welcome. If, for instance, even Stewart L. Woodford, United States minister in Madrid, should land at San Francisco tomorrow and traverse the continent it would be doubtful if he would be greeted by a baker's dozen, where Fitzhugh Lee is welcomed by thousands.

The demonstrations in Lee's honor have been in every way popular and spontaneous, and not partisan; yet they suggest a partisan possibility. The democracy has been looking for a Moses to lead it in 1900. May not Lee be the man?—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Troops Go South.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, April 19—Eight regiments started today for Chickamauga, Mobile, Tampa and New Orleans.

Chicago, April 19—Final orders were issued to Fourth Infantry, which starts for Tampa at noon, accompanied by eight freight cars loaded with provisions and equipments.

St. Paul, April 19—The Third Infantry left Snelling for Mobile at noon today.

SPANISH BOARD OF INQUIRY.

Its Findings Officially Gazetted at Madrid.

Madrid, April 18—The report of the destruction of the "Maine" has been officially gazetted here. The document treats of the subject at great length, and rejects absolutely the theory of the explosion of a submarine mine. The board finds, upon the evidence of divers and others, "abundant proof" that the explosion was an internal one.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.

Who Have Been Dogging the Movements of the Troops.

Atlanta, Ga., April 18—Considerable anxiety is manifested here by the military officials over the actions of three men, supposed to be Spaniards, who for nearly two weeks have dogged the militia and Federal troops in their military movements.

The state volunteers, under emergency orders from the government, have increased their weekly drills of late, and these men have been out on each occasion. Particular attention has been paid by them to the evolutions of the signal corps.

American Goods Abroad.

The market for American made goods in Australia is evidently broadening, and our agricultural implements and machinery, hats, shoes and instruments of precision find a ready sale in this comparatively new field. The sales of manufactured goods and commodities of home production by the United States to Australia exceeded $17,000,000 last year, and this profitable traffic should be largely increased by reason of the increasing antipodean conviction of the superiority of our wares for export.—Philadelphia Record.

A SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

Will be Couched in Terms to Inspire Patriotism.

DECLARE SPAIN WILL NOT SUBMIT

Cortez Will be Asked to Accord the Government Every Facility for National Defense.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, April 19—A speech from the throne tomorrow will be couched in terms that will move the chambers and the people to a highly patriotic demonstration, and will declare that Spain has no intention of yielding through the pressure which is being brought to bear. Attention will be called to the aggressiveness of the people and announcement will be made that Spain is firmly resolved to do anything rather than submit to a diminution of her sovereignty or interference with her integrity as a nation. Cortez will be asked to accord the government every facility for national defense.

BEAT A SPANISH OFFICER.
Havana, April 19—Insurgents attacked and beat a Spanish officer who offered armistice, according to official reports.

Tents will be erected in the public parks for the enlistment of troops. There is an intensely patriotic feeling prevailing here.

WORSE THAN USELESS.
Berlin, April 19—Germany considers mediation of the powers worse than useless.

JOINED THE FLOTILLA.
Cape Verde Islands, April 19—The Spanish warships Vizcaya and Oquendo join the torpedo flotilla here today.

AN ALLIANCE FORMED.
Rome, April 19—The Massagero announces that a triple alliance has been formed by Germany, Austria, and Italy, and they have proposed to the powers the formation of a plebiscite, looking to a settlement of the Cuban difficulty.

PEACE IMPOSSIBLE.
London, April 19—The afternoon newspapers all say that the president signing the resolutions precludes all possibility of peace.

LAST EFFORT TO AVERT WAR.
London, April 19—The Austrian, and Italian ambassadors visited the foreign office this afternoon to make their last effort to avert bloodshed. Balfour declined to make any more unless so requested by Spain and the United States.

MAJOR-GENERAL LEE.

To Command a Division of the Army for the Invasion of Cuba.

The administration has decided to thank Gen. Fitzhugh Lee for his arduous, distinguished and faithful service in Cuba by giving him a commission as Major-General of volunteers and putting him in command of a division of the army for the invasion of Cuba.

The American people, without a dissenting voice, will approve this act of the administration. The Godskins and their impotent kind are not Americans.

Gen. Lee, in his modesty, has disclaimed any special value and refused any special thanks for his services. Yet there is a general feeling that some mark of appreciation and gratitude should be given to him. He has taken the only one that he would not refuse, and it is the one dearest to his heart. He will go back as a soldier and help win Cuba from the Spaniards, whose cruelties he has exposed and whose insults are still ringing in his ears.

The Spanish editors in Havana pretended to think that Gen. Lee went away from there too soon. He will go back a great deal sooner than will be convenient for them; and when he comes, and wherever he goes, at the head of a division, there will be warm work.—N. Y. Sun.

AS THEY NOW STAND.

The Resolutions Agreed on at Two O'Clock This Morning.

The following is the present status of the Cuban resolutions which were agreed on by a conference about two o'clock this morning:

Washington, April 19—The Cuban resolutions, after the preamble and whereas, now read, as reported by conferences and agreed on:

Resolved, First, That the people of the Island of Cuba are, and of right ought to be, free and independent.

Second, That it is the duty of the United States to demand, and the government of the United States does hereby demand, that the government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and government in the Island of Cuba, and withdraw its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.

Third, That the president of the United States be, and hereby is, directed and empowered to use the entire land and naval forces of the United States, and to call into actual service of the United States the militia of the several states, to such extent as may be necessary to carry these resolutions into effect.

Fourth, That the United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over the island, except for the pacification thereof, and asserts its determination, when that is accomplished, to leave the government and control of the island to its people.

RAISAY AND BUTLER.

The Progressive Farmer of this week throws down the gage of battle to Senator Butler. It does not hesitate to charge that he intends to desert the populist standard and carry with him as large a contingent of his party as possible into the democratic camp. The Progressive Farmer says:

Chairman Butler, through his personal organ and otherwise, is advocating the state and national co-operation with the democrats. We are not at all surprised. In fact, this has been plainly apparent since 1896. Doubtless Mr. Butler was laying his "harbor mines" when he and others delayed the national populist convention in 1896 in order to allow the democrats to get on the ground first with a candidate and platform. Many good men were misled in that matter, but we hardly think Senator Butler was caught napping. At any rate, his political course since has been such that no one need longer doubt that he hopes to land on a soft spot in the Democratic camp and carry as many as possible with him.

We care but little about Chairman Butler's political schemes, and being heartily in favor of liberty of thought and speech, we must say that if he thinks it best to go into some other political party, he should do so. But he should go like a man and seek to carry his personal followers in the same way.

It is becoming more and more evident from day to day that the breach between the two wings of the populist party is widening. It would not be at all surprising if the surmise of the Progressive Farmer should prove to be correct. Mr. Butler is possessed of sufficient acumen to understand that while a man may be a political trimmer himself, he cannot hope to carry any considerable following with him from party to party repeatedly. Whether the democratic party will receive him with open arms is quite another question. Those who keep a weather eye on political developments in this state for the next sixty days are likely to be well rewarded for their trouble.

And still there is no jam of volunteers at the ticket window.

Is it going to turn out that despite all his astuteness Mr. Bryan has written a letter?

Whether or not the new Holland submarine torpedo boat proves a success in war it ought to be a gem to go to a fishing in.

Those jingoes who are hungering and thirsting to see a fight should have kept their eyes on the senate and house for the last few days.

It will be noted that up to the present time the Hon. Marcus A. Hanna has not slashed the senatorial air into quivering strips with his oratory.

Congressman Grosvenor is disposed to be sarcastic at the expense of the grammar of the senate resolutions. How can Mr. Grosvenor expect a youth that was occupied with very concrete cutlets and cabbages to find time to master the ornamental abstractions of English grammar?

Would it be out of order to suggest that in these stirring times Mr. J. Gordon Coogler, of Columbia, should be asked to embody in a few belligerent stanzas, the gory thirst of South Carolina?

If Mr. McKinley had shown the same determination in his dealings with Spain earlier in his administration, that he now displays in whipping congressmen into line there would not now be the necessity for going at it tooth and claw.

The laureate of the present Hispano-American crisis is, indeed, the Tory laureate, Alfred Austin, whose "Voice From the West" has struck a high note indicative of the latter-day trend toward an Anglo-American unity. Philadelphia Record.

It is not at all surprising that the Record of late should endorse anything of Tory origin. While it must be admitted that Mr. Austin has risen above his usual level, he makes it quite evident that from his point of view the "Voice From the West" will be a supplicatory whine to Britannia for help.

THE TELEGRAM'S BULLETINS.

Received Last Night After the Paper Was Issued.

Washington, April 18—After the vote in the house Johnson, of Indiana, asked permission to address the house for an hour in opposition to all forms of expressions that look toward war, believing war to be unnecessary and unwarranted. A member demanded regular order and Johnson resumed his seat.

Bailey engaged in a wrangle with the chair, after which Bailey demanded and secured recognition to make a parliamentary inquiry.

The resolutions of the house were sent to the government printing office by a messenger and he was instructed to wait until he got a printed copy.

Secretary Gage notified the employees of the treasury department that they will be granted a year's leave of absence if they wish to become members of the army.

Captain Sigsbee was detached from the navy department and ordered to duty on the St. Paul, which is now in League Island navy yard.

The war department ordered an additional purchase of 1800 mules for Cuba.

Congressmen Bartlett and Brown apologized today for the book throwing incident of last week.

Chairman Davis said he would ask the senate to sit tonight. The house resolution will be rushed over to the senate as fast as the clerk can prepare it. The senate transacted routine business. Opinions are widely different regarding what disposition the senate will make of the amended resolutions. Some say it will concur, others say a conference committee is necessary; still others say the senate will not accept the resolutions.

5 p. m.—The Senate disagrees with the house resolution as amended. Reported back to the house. Dingley moves that the house insist on its and asks for a conference.

The Forakerites have just decided to yield and accept the House amendments. This will probably bring action immediately.

Senators Davis, Foraker and Morgan were appointed the Senate Conference committee. Recess was taken until 8 o'clock when an agreement will be reached. The struggle has ended.

House resolution reported in the senate. Chairman Davis moves that the senate concur in the house amendment. Motion defeated by a vote of 32 to 46. The resolution now goes to conference.

Cavacas, April 18—President Crespo, of Venezuela, was killed while engaged in a battle with the Hernandez rebel forces.

Panic in Manila.

London, April 18—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Singapore says: The Spanish mail boat, Leo XIII, from Manila, arrived at that place today. Among her passengers were the Marquis de Estrella, the retiring governor of the Philippine Islands, and the Bishop-elect of Porto Rico.

The ship was crowded with Spanish officials and well to do families escaping from the islands. There was great anxiety among the passengers lest they should encounter an American cruiser before they reached Singapore.

The dispatch adds that there is an intense panic in Manila. The rebellion is fast spreading to the whole archipelago.

Edward Bellamy Dying.

Denver, Col., April 18—Edward Bellamy, the famous author of "Looking Backward" and other works, who came from his home in Massachusetts last fall in the hope of regaining his health, is dying of consumption and the end is believed to be near.

BAD EFFECT OF THE DELAY.

The Business Men of Florida Report a Severe Depression.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 18—If Jacksonville, Palatka, Tampa, and in fact, all of Florida, serves as a type of business depression, the whole south must be in a state resembling lethargy. Every one of prominence with whom the correspondent has talked insists that the depression is directly attributable to the delay in settling the Cuban question. Each insists that war were better far than this uncertainty, when, they claim, the merchant who deals by wholesale and the small store-keeper are alike unable to determine how much stock to lay in, or upon what enterprises to venture. It is not too much to say that Florida would welcome the arbitration of war, as does the surgical patient the announcement that the heroic operation is over.

Miss Long as a Navy Nurse.

Washington, D. C., April 17.—Miss Long, eldest daughter of the Secretary of the Navy, who several months ago decided to give up the allurements of Washington society and begin a course of study in medicine at the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, has announced to her friends her intention of volunteering her services as nurse in the event of war.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repline, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

News Suppressed.

war, has decided to not make public
the movements of troops or any news that might be of advantage to an enemy.

Something to Depend On.
Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles brought her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial

Graham, N. C., Nov. 23, 1898.
Mrs. Joe Person:—Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the wonderful cure your Remedy made on my little daughter, some eight years ago. She was afflicted with some hood impurity which resulted in boils and sores on her head, face and neck, which troubled her severely and continuously for 18 months, more or less. After trying different remedies for a long time without any permanent relief, a friend advised me to try your medicine. After a short use of it she began to improve and when she had taken about eighteen bottles the sores and boils were entirely healed, there has never been any return of them, and she seems now to be entirely well. I consider your Remedy one of the very best blood purifiers on the market.

Yours very truly,
J. H. WATSON.

TALK WITH MINISTER POLO.

Spain has made a Great Concession in Ignoring American Insults.
Berlin, April 18—The Washington correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger cables an interview with Seno Polo y Bernabe, the Spanish minister to the United States, in which he says:

"We have made extraordinary concessions in ignoring the American insults, in permitting the import of food into Cuba, and suspending hostilities.
"Notwithstanding all this, neither the insurgents nor America has appreciated these facts as they should have done.

"Despite the prevailing excitement I hope calmer consideration of the question will induce America to commence diplomatic negotiations, and render my departure unnecessary."

papa loves me as much as he loves my mama. Mama says papa tells her fairly stories. He never tells any to me."—Boston Transcript.

A FAMOUS MULBERRY TREE.
Planted by Milton in Christ's College Gardens, Cambridge.

In the gardens of Christ's college, Cambridge, stands a venerable mulberry tree, which, tradition says, was planted by Milton during the time when he was a student at the university. This would be between the years 1624 and 1632, for the following copy, from the Latin of his entry of admission, accurately fixes the former date, and his admission to the degree of M. A., to which he proceeded in the latter year, ended his intimate connection with the university:
"John Milton, native of London, son of John Milton, was initiated in the elements of letters under Mr. Gill, master of St. Paul's school; was admitted a learner pensioner Feb. 12, 1624, under
Mr. Chappell and paid entrance fee, 10s." He was then 16 years and 9 months old.

The tree so intimately associated with his name is now much decayed, but in order to preserve it as much as possible from the ravages of time many of the branches have been covered with sheet lead and are further supported by stout wooden props, while the trunk has been buried in a mound of earth. The luxuriance of the foliage and the crop of fruit which it annually bears are proof of its vitality, but to insure against accidents and perpetuate the tree an offshoot has been planted close by. In the event of a bough breaking and falling it is divided with even justice among the fellows of the college, and many pieces are thus preserved as mementos of the poet. It was during his residence at Cambridge that he composed his ode, "On the Morning of Christ's Nativity." "Lycidas," too, is intimately connected with Milton's life at the university, since it was written in memory of Edward King, his college friend and contemporary, with whom he doubtless shared the same rooms.

In those days students did not, as now, occupy separate apartments as witness the original statutes of the college, "In which chambers our wish is that the fellows sleep two and two, but the scholars four and four," in consequence of which a much closer intimacy was formed among them than is now possible. Dr. Johnson relates that Milton was flogged at Cambridge, but the fact is doubtful, though there is reason to suppose that he had differences with the authorities in the earlier part of his college career, since he was transferred from his original tutor. This tree is still pointed out to visitors and was until recent years especially marked by a bough of mistletoe growing upon it.— Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper.

Scene In the Chamber of Deputies With the Members Present.

chamber of deputies, says Colonel T.
W. Higginson in The Atlantic, I found the hall full of people waiting, each having to send his card to some member, naming on it the precise hour of arrival. The member usually appeared promptly, when an immense uaher called in a stentorian voice for "La personne qui a fait demander M. Constant" —or whoever it might be. Then the constituent—for such it usually was—advanced toward the smiling member, who never looked bored, the mask of hospitality being probably the same in this respect throughout the legislative halls of the world. At last M. Tahandier appeared and got me a place among the corps diplomatique. The chamber itself was more like our representatives' hall at Washington than like the house of commons. The members had little locked desks, and some were writing letters, like our representatives, though I saw no newspapers.

The ordinary amount of noise was like that in our congress, though there was happily no clapping of hands for pages, but when the members became especially excited, which indeed happened very often, it became like a cage of lions. For instance, I entered just as somebody had questioned the minister of war, General Borel, about an alleged interference with elections, and his defiant reply had enraged the Lefts, or radicals, who constituted the majority of the assembly. They shouted and ge-stulated, throwing up their arms and then slapping them on their knees very angrily, until the president rang his great bell, and they quieted down lest he might put on his hat and adjourn the meeting. In each case the member speaking took his stand in the desk or tribune below the president, and the speeches were sometimes read, sometimes given without notes.

The war minister, a stout, red faced man—always, the radicals say, half intoxicated—stood with folded arms and looked rufy for some time, yet I heard it said about me that he would be compelled either to retreat or resign.
One saw at a glance how much pro-founder political differences must be in France than with us.

Married on Thirty Minutes' Courtship.

"You may talk about your brief courtships and marriages on short notice," said Captain Arm Cardwell once,
"but I think I once witnessed the quickest made match on record. I was running as a conductor between Russellville and Owensboro, as I did for many years, and on a trip in the winter of 1881 I got a pretty country girl passenger at a little flag station south of Central City about 9:45 a. m. A few miles farther on at another small station a big strapping looking farmer, dressed in brown jeans, with his trousers tucked in his tall boots, got on my train.
The fellow hadn't opened the car door till he spied the rustic lass, and before he took his seat in front of the girl he had smiled at her.

"I punched his ticket, went in the smoking car, and on my return to the regular passenger coach found the Green river tiller of the soil sitting in the same seat with the maiden, chatting with her as if he had known her since birth. In 25 minutes after they had taken their seats I called me to him and said: 'See here, podner, we want to get hitched. I hain't knowed Mirinda Jane here but 80 minutes, but we both like, an she's willin an so'm I. Whur's the highest person, podner?' I took them on to Owensboro, and the happy bridegroom and his blushing bride half were passengers back on my train that afternoon. For hurry up nuptials it does strike me that these ought to have the cake and other special prizes offered for quick yeast love matches."—Louisville Post.

Eugene Sue's Franks.

The father of Eugene Sue was a physician with exalted patients all over Europe, who sent him the choicest wines. The emperor of Austria, for instance, had contributed tokay, the king of Prussia rare hock, Queen Christina of Spain priceless alicante, Prince Metternich genuine cachet d'or, and so on.
The whole was kept in a large iron cupboard in the study of the learned physician, known as the Elzevir library.
Eugene was then a college freshman, and, having procured a skeleton key to the closet, with his friends, Adolphe, Adam, Veron and others, proceeded every night to investigate the contents of the bottles. Not wishing to have their explorations prematurely stopped, they took the precaution to fill up the partially exhausted flasks with water and then to reseat them. When, for a long time afterward, the doctor brought forth samples of his precious stock for the delectation of guests worthy of it, and the company tasted it with a due sense of awe, it was privately felt that the celebrity of these great brands was all moonshine, that ordinary table d'hote bordeaux was preferable to them. But nobody dared to say so, and it was only after the death of his dreaded parent that the novelist confessed the sacrilege.

He Got a Mate.

A sea captain called at a village inn
and asked the landlady, a young widow:
"Do you know where I can get a mate? I have lost my mate."
"I am very sorry for you, Mr. —," she said, smiling. "I want a mate, too, and cannot get one. As we are in the same position, I'll tell you what I'll do
—if you'll be mine, I will be yours." He closed with the bargain, and the widow keeping her word, he is now supplied with two mates.—Pearson's Weekly.

Papa's Unconcern.

Matilda—Have you spoken to papa?
Bertie—Yes. I asked him through the telephone, and he answered, "I don't know who you are, but it's all right."—Rich Me Up.

Greensboro's NEEDS and WANTS.

Under this head, it might not be amiss to mention the fact that Greensboro needs and wants, in addition to the things mentioned yesterday, first-class roads—properly graded and macadamized—leading into the city. The first proposition—that she needs them—no thinking or public spirited citizen will, for a moment, question. That she wants them, is, or ought to be, equally true.

Greensboro wants to grow. She needs good roads to help her grow. Good roads will help both the city and the country. Good roads will stimulate agricultural operations. Good roads will not only be of great advantage to those who are now engaged in tilling the soil, but will invite immigration by opening a way to market, and lands now almost out of reach and valueless will become good property. Columns have been written along this line and columns will yet be written.

All the evidence introduced in this connection will go to show that good roads will help the town in the same proportion that it does the country. But it does not require a Solomon to see through all this, and we mention it as one of the needs of the city of Greensboro.
